SUBJECT: COMMUNITY-BASED JOB TRAINING GRANTS

On July 3, 2006, the U.S. Department of Labor (DOL), Employment and Training Administration, announced the availability of approximately $125 million in grant funds for Community-Based Job Training Grants. These grant funds will be awarded to individual community and technical colleges, community college districts, state community college systems, and One-Stop Career Centers to support or engage in a combination of capacity building and training activities for the purpose of building the capacity of community colleges to train for careers in high-growth/high demand industries in the local and/or regional economies.

Specific information regarding this grant announcement and application can be found in the July 3, 2006, edition of the Federal Register Volume 71, Number 12. Applications must be received by DOL on August 29, 2006, no later than 5 p.m. (Eastern Time).

Prospective applicants for Community-Based Job Training Grants are invited to attend one of three Webinars to be held on the Workforce One Web site. The purpose of these conferences is to assist prospective applicants in preparing a quality and complete application.

If you have questions about the Webinars, please e-mail businessrelations@dol.gov. All other inquiries regarding this grant announcement should be directed to Kevin Brumback, Grants Management Specialist, Division of Federal Assistance, at (202) 693-3381 or brumback.kevin@dol.gov.
